Source	These are online members of "Homeowners-club.co.uk", the first place to visit for all matters relating to property, household finance issues and living environment. Because the investment in a home is important, this club is a real asset to visitors. The Homeowners Club is designed to be a 'mini portal' for people to simply and easily access many aspects concerned with their home and living needs. From looking for a plumber - to erecting a conservatory; from looking for a mortgage - to making a will; from a directory of useful contacts - to the more unusual, like how to try and get the chance for your home to be a star location for a film or TV drama. Members receive a Monthly Newsletter to maintain the database integrity. Sourced primarily through online registration via entry to a free prize draw Competition these individuals are looking for all kinds of help and advice to improve their home and living. From DIY to Insurance / Financial services, they will be ideal prospects for a huge range of products.
